

Title: Antananarivo demand response

Generated on: 2026-05-05 22:39:45

Copyright (C) 2026 SWB POWER & SOLAR. All rights reserved.

For the latest updates and more information, visit our website: <https://swbsports.co.za>

Peaceful protests began in the capital Antananarivo on 25 September, but the security forces intervened with unnecessary force, lobbing teargas and beating and arresting protesters.

In a nationally televised address, the president, Andry Rajoelina, acknowledged the outrage of the thousands of young people who have taken to the streets over the past week to ...

President Andry Rajoelina has reportedly fled the country after elite army units and the gendarmerie sided with demonstrators. The movement, driven by the Gen-Z Mada group, now ...

Since September 25, hundreds of protesters led by the "Gen Z Madagascar" youth movement have been taking to the streets of Antananarivo. What began as anger about the ...

Authorities in Madagascar on Thursday imposed a dusk-to-dawn curfew in the capital, after protests over frequent power outages and water shortages turned violent, according to a top ...

Madagascar faces youth-led protests over power cuts. Curfews declared in Antananarivo. Travel and security disruptions likely.

Learn about the Malagasy government's efforts to alleviate the fatigue of Antananarivo residents caused by power outages.

Anger over chronic water and electricity shortages has exploded into deadly unrest in Madagascar, prompting a night-time curfew in the capital. At least five people were killed in mass ...

Colonel Michael Randrianirina says military taking charge of African island nation after president flees, is impeached. Protesters in Antananarivo demand the resignation of Madagascar's...

The call for peaceful demonstrations was shared widely on social media, attracting thousands of people to

Antananarivo demand response protest peacefully against the daily outages in Antananarivo, the capital of ...

Web: <https://swbsports.co.za>

